

Wild Trout Trust Conservation Awards 2014

Produced by:

the River Restoration Centre
Working to restore and enhance our rivers

Burnley URES

Ribble Rivers Trust

Techniques:

- Pool riffle sequence
- Fish passage
- Public engagement

River Medlock Restoration

Environment Agency

Techniques:

- Weir removal
- Channel widening
- Public engagement

Sherborne Windrush Project

Cotswolds Rivers Trust

Techniques:

- Woody debris
- Cattle drinkers
- Gravel introduction

Eastridge Estate Restoration

Eastridge Estate & Windrush AEC

Techniques:

- Coppicing
- Riffle creation
- Channel narrowing
- Gravel loosening
- Wildflower planting

Dorset Wild Rivers

Dorset Wildlife Trust

Techniques:

- Channel narrowing
- Woody debris
- Log jams

Peffery Restoration Project

Moray Firth Trout Initiative

Techniques:

- Fish passage
- Tree planting
- Catchment management
- Pool creation
- Gravel loosening

Eddleston Water Project

Tweed Forum

Techniques:

- Meander creation
- Tree planting

River Deerness Improvement Project

Wear Rivers Trust

Techniques:

- Remove 9 barriers to fish migration

Rodley Fish Pass

Ove Arup & Partners

Techniques:

- Installation of meandering fish pass channel

Guash Habitat Restoration

Guash Fishing Club

Techniques:

- Channel narrowing
- Coppicing
- Gravel introduction

Sherborne Brook

Cotswold Flyfishers

Techniques:

- Use of woody debris
- Coppicing
- Bank fencing

Wye Habitat Restoration

High Wycombe District Council & Five Rivers Env. Contracting

Techniques:

- Meander creation
- Concrete removal
- Bed & Bank re-grading

